MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING (MoU) between Jamia Nadawiyya Training College (JNTC) And The Integrated Medical Brotherhood (IMB)

This Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) establishes a partnership between Jamia Nadawiyya Training College (hereinafter referred to as "JNTC"), an educational institution, and The Integrated Medical Brotherhood (IMB) an organization dedicated to provide services such as distributing medicines, providing free medical treatments to poor patients, home care, advice about health care and treatments through "pain and palliative clinics".

Objectives:

Both parties agree to collaborate on the following objectives:

- Organize awareness campaigns and workshops to educate students and faculty about palliative care, its importance, and how it can improve the quality of life for patients with serious illnesses.
- Create opportunities for students to volunteer at the clinic, offering companionship and support to patients and their families.
- Host fundraisers to support the clinic's initiatives and raise funds for necessary equipment or services.
- Arrange seminars and lectures with healthcare professionals to discuss palliative care and related topics.
- To jointly develop and implement community outreach programs that raise awareness about palliative care and promote its importance in healthcare.
- Conduct health awareness classes for hostel students to educate them about the importance of maintaining good health and making informed choices about their lifestyles.
- Emphasize the importance of maintaining cleanliness and hygiene in shared living spaces to prevent the spread of infections.

Implementation:

- All collaborative activities will be implemented through mutual agreement.
- Each party will assign a designated representative to coordinate specific programs or activities.

Duration and Renewal:

This MoU will become effective immediately upon signature by the authorized representatives of both JNTC and IMB and will be valid for an initial period of two years. It is subject to renewal and modification by mutual agreement.
